

TWO STUDENTS EARN HAZEL MINORITY SCHOLARSHIPS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -

(August 26, 2003) -- The Community Foundation of the Eastern Shore has announced that two recent high school graduates from the Lower Shore have been selected to receive scholarship awards from the Richard F. and Patricia M. Hazel Minority Teachers Scholarship Fund.

Andrea Short, a 2003 graduate of Stephen Decatur High School and Amanda Tillman, a 2002 graduate of Wicomico High School, have been selected to receive awards from the Hazel Minority Teachers Scholarship Fund, one of 50 scholarship funds administered by the Community Foundation of the Eastern Shore. Both students will attend the University of Maryland, College Park.

The Richard F. and Patricia M. Hazel Minority Teachers Scholarship Fund was established 12 years ago to support local minority students who plan to teach on the Eastern Shore after graduation. The Hazel family owns and operates Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. in Salisbury.

The Community Foundation serves the individuals and communities of Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester Counties. The Foundation's purpose is to strengthen the Lower Shore by building charitable endowments, maximizing benefits to donors, making effective grants and providing leadership to address community needs.
